

Sept. 9th, 1926.

about the arrest. He was not able to furnish any further information, so Operative returned to Hoboken in an effort to get the record from the Police Department records, but the Inspector is away on a vacation and Det. Sullivan who is in charge during the day is sick and Det. Fanello who has charge at night was not there.

Mr. Weinthal does remember the man named Freese Frances, who conducted a lumber yard in Hoboken and that he had a few words with him over his bailing out a girl which he (Weinthal) arrested, but he could not remember anything further about that case. He stated that this man was quite a sport about the town and very fond of the ladies and was frequently mixed up with notorious women.

Respectfully submitted:

GTP